Mira it's time to finally end our rivalry!

Heh. If that's the way you want it then I'm game. How shall we decide the winner?

I have that all taken care of. We'll compete in a eating contest! The first one two stop eating loses.

Is there something weird about this food?

The cooks who made it used magic to make whoever eats it fill up faster and get fatter. What's wrong? Afraid of gaining some weight?

No way. Let's settle this once and for all, Erza!

Oh! I didn't expect this food to be so good!

Every bite is a de-light and I just want more!

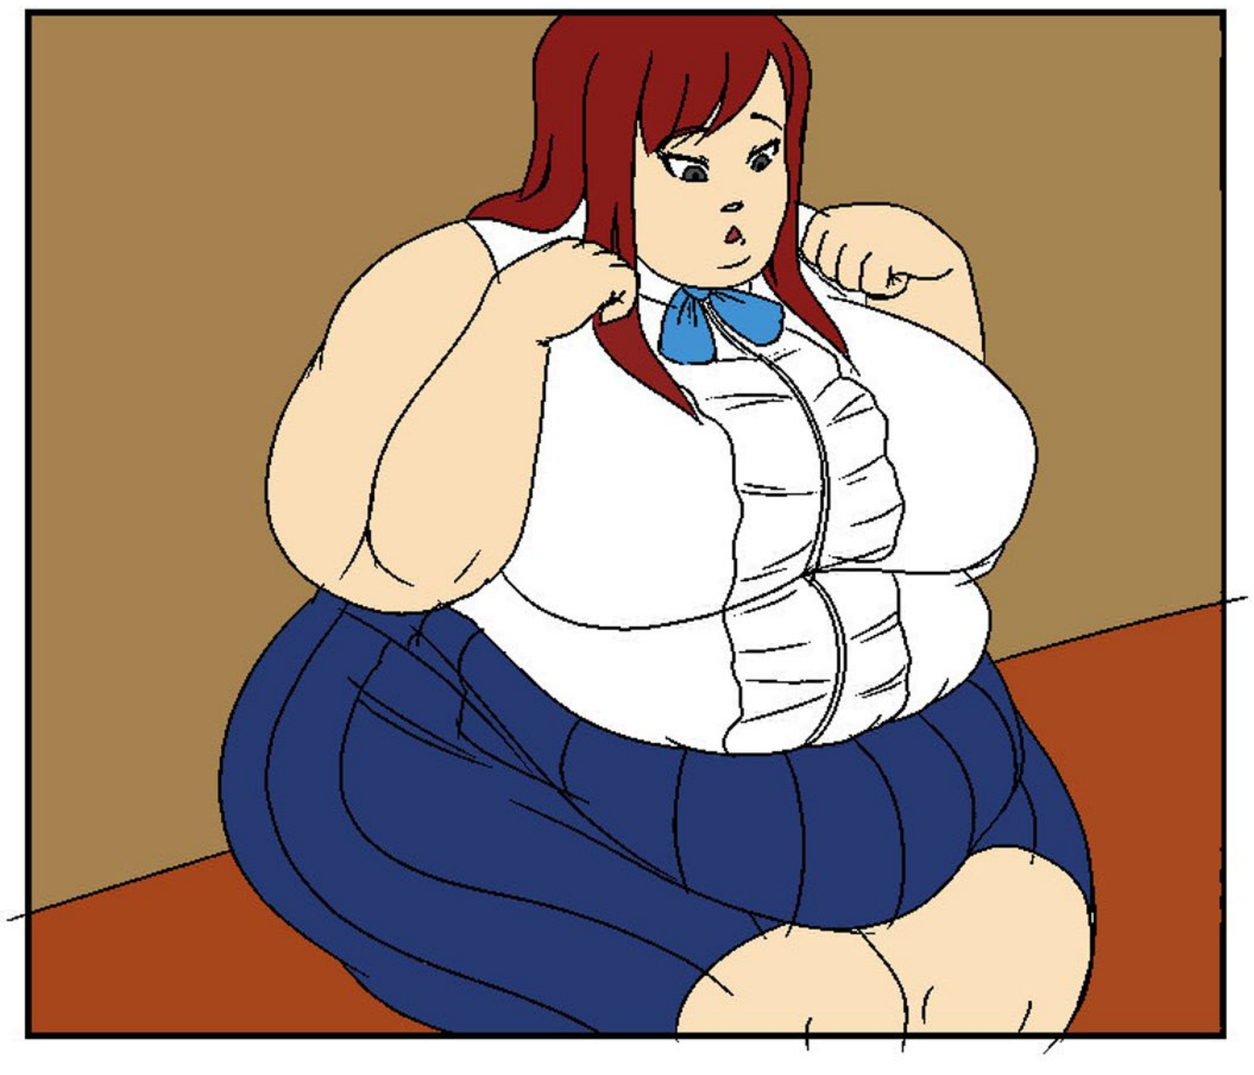
I could do this forever...No!

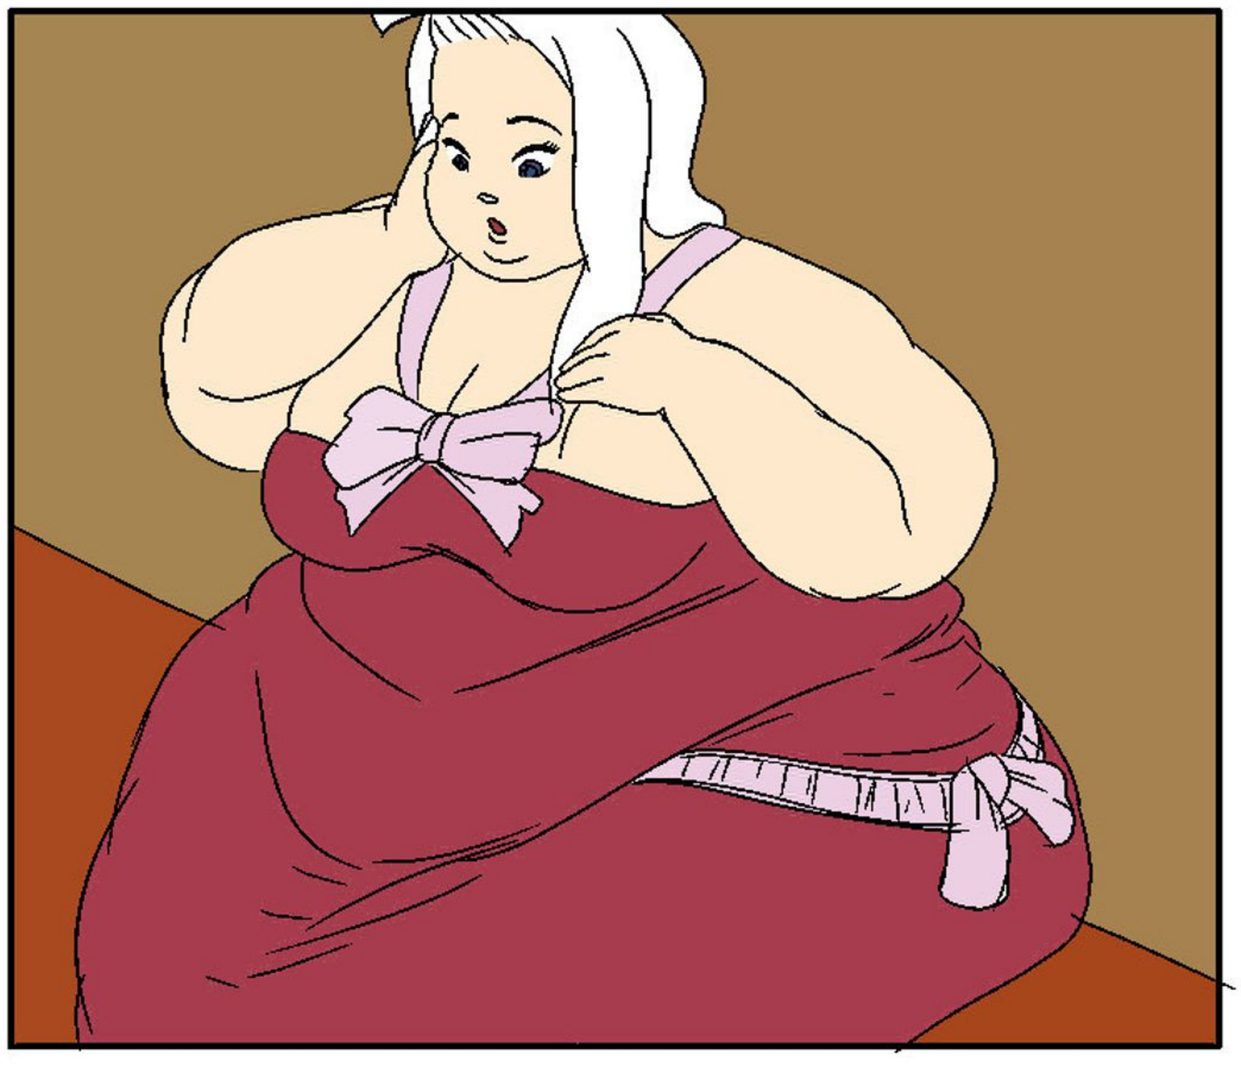
Bad Erza. Don't get distracted by the taste.

Though she's looking like...

She's enjoying it too.

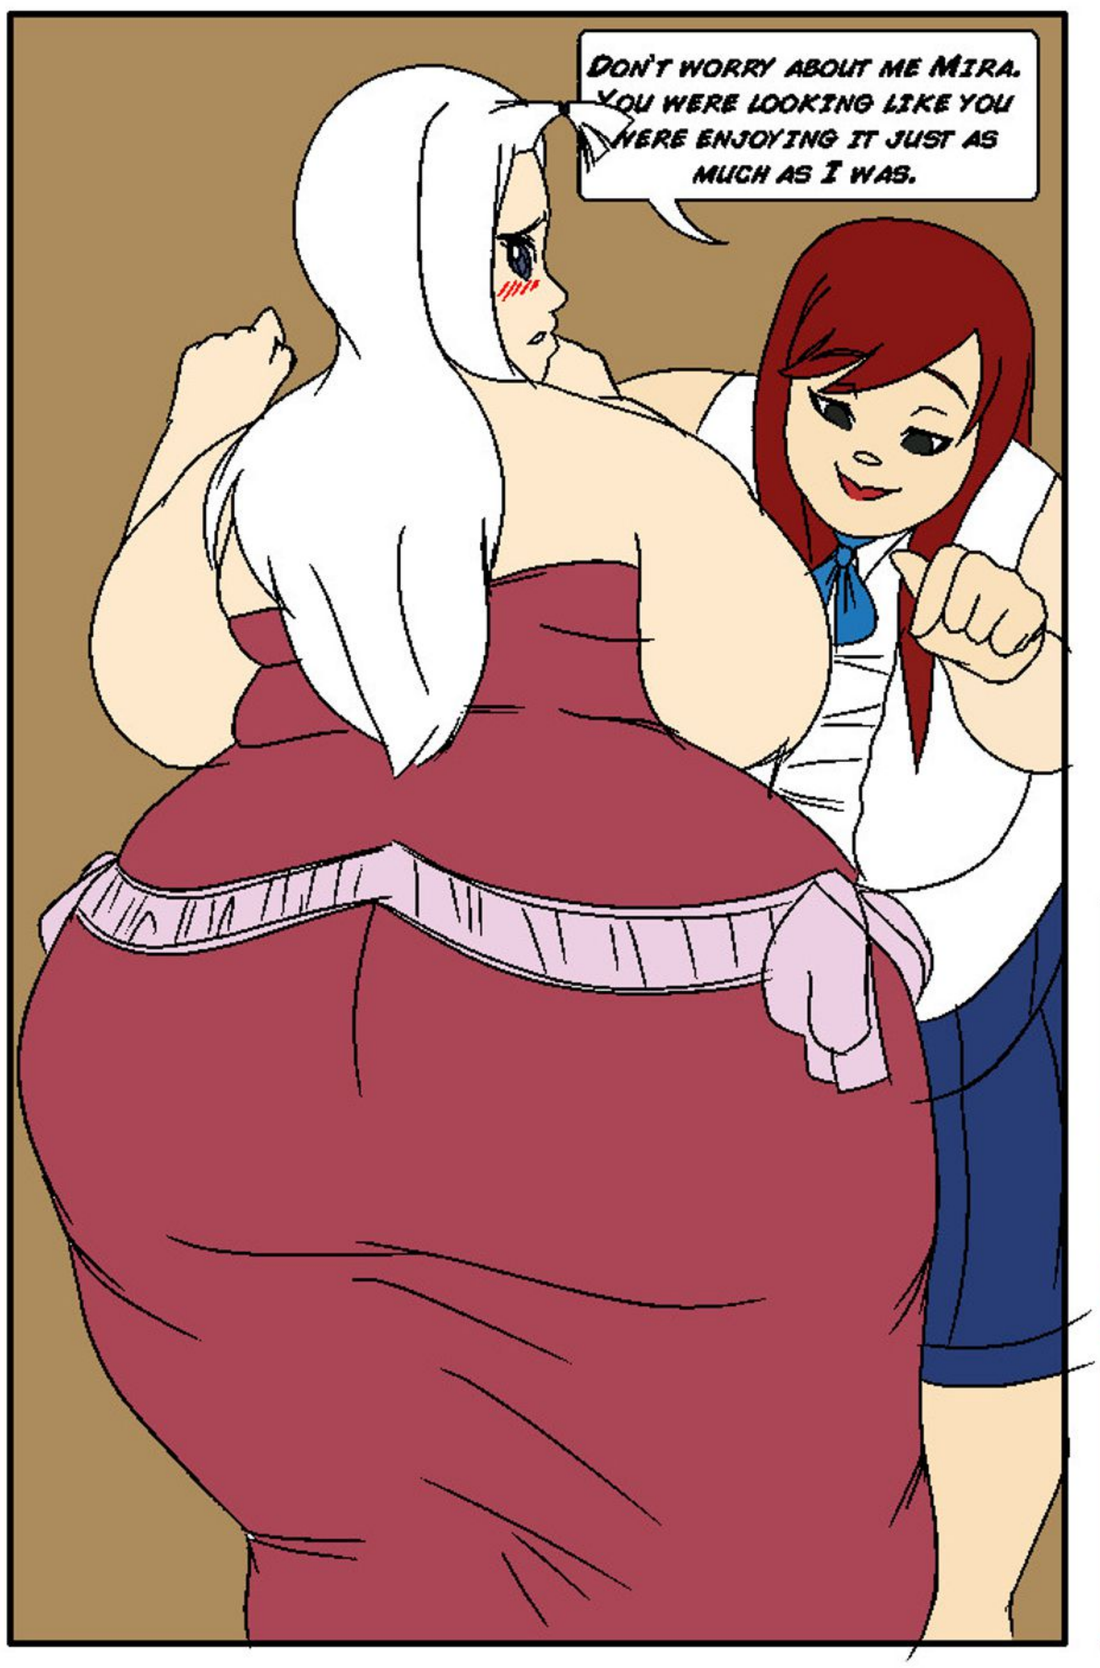
You have to beat Mira...





What's wrong Erza? You're looking a bit rounder than before.

Will you still be able to fight with all that added fat?



Don't worry about me Mira. You were looking like you were enjoying it just as much as I was.

I hope you're ready for the second course.

Oh my I can't get over how good this is! I know I keep getting fatter and fatter...

But this food is too good!

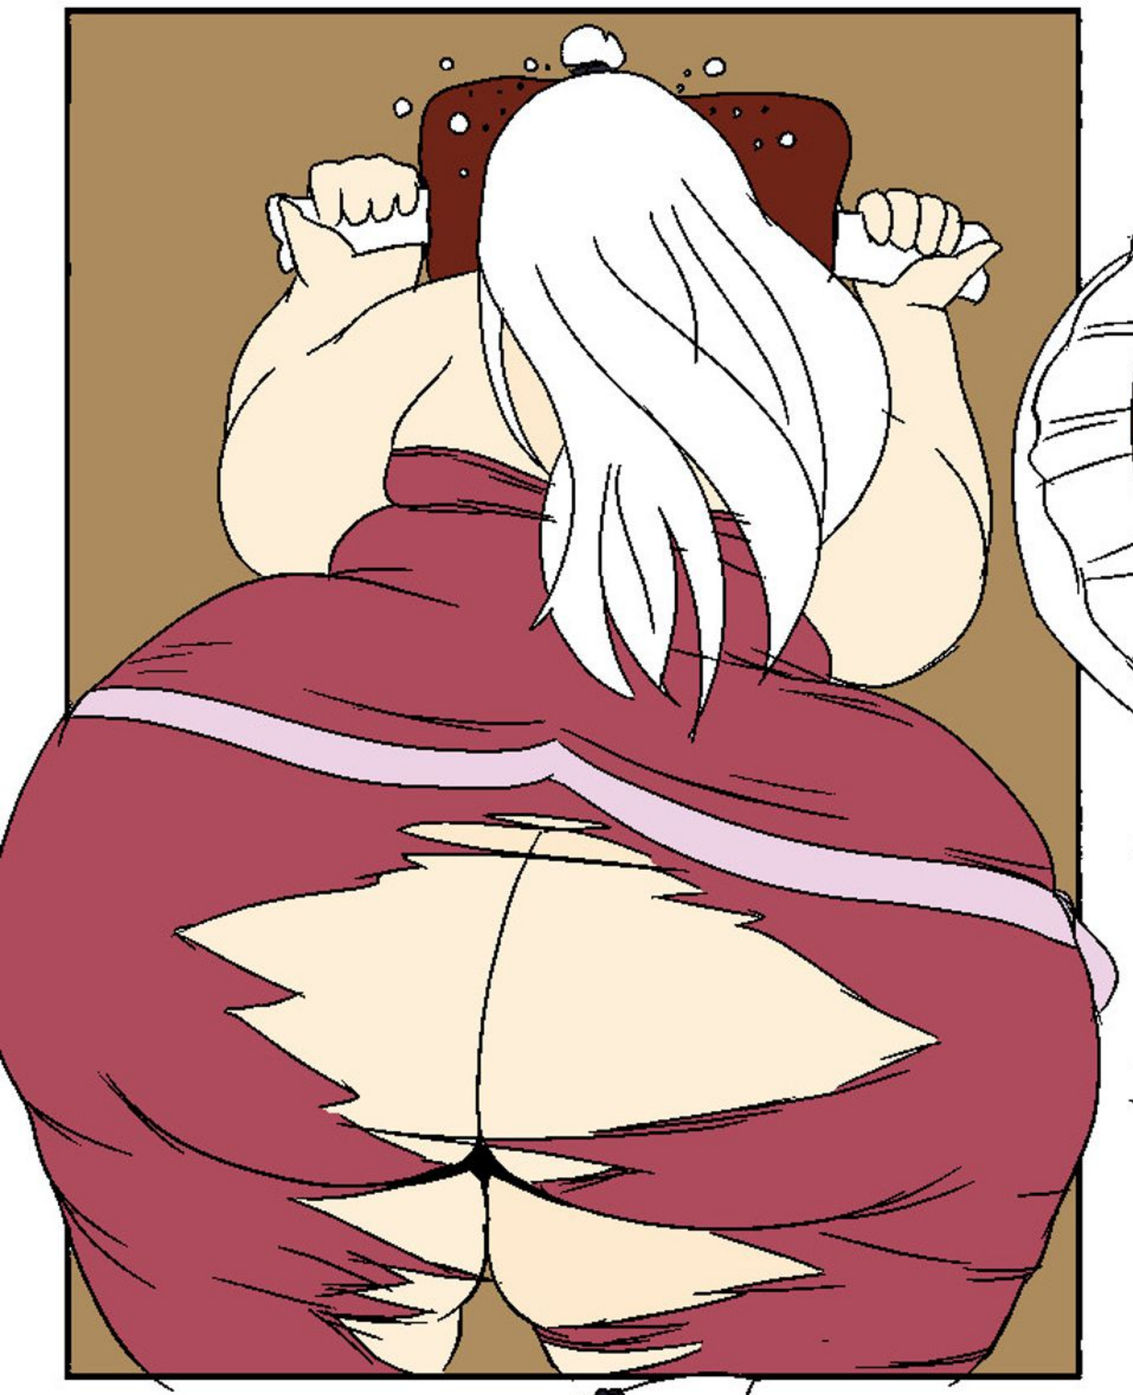
Even though I warned Mira about the weight I have to say I'm enjoying the extra

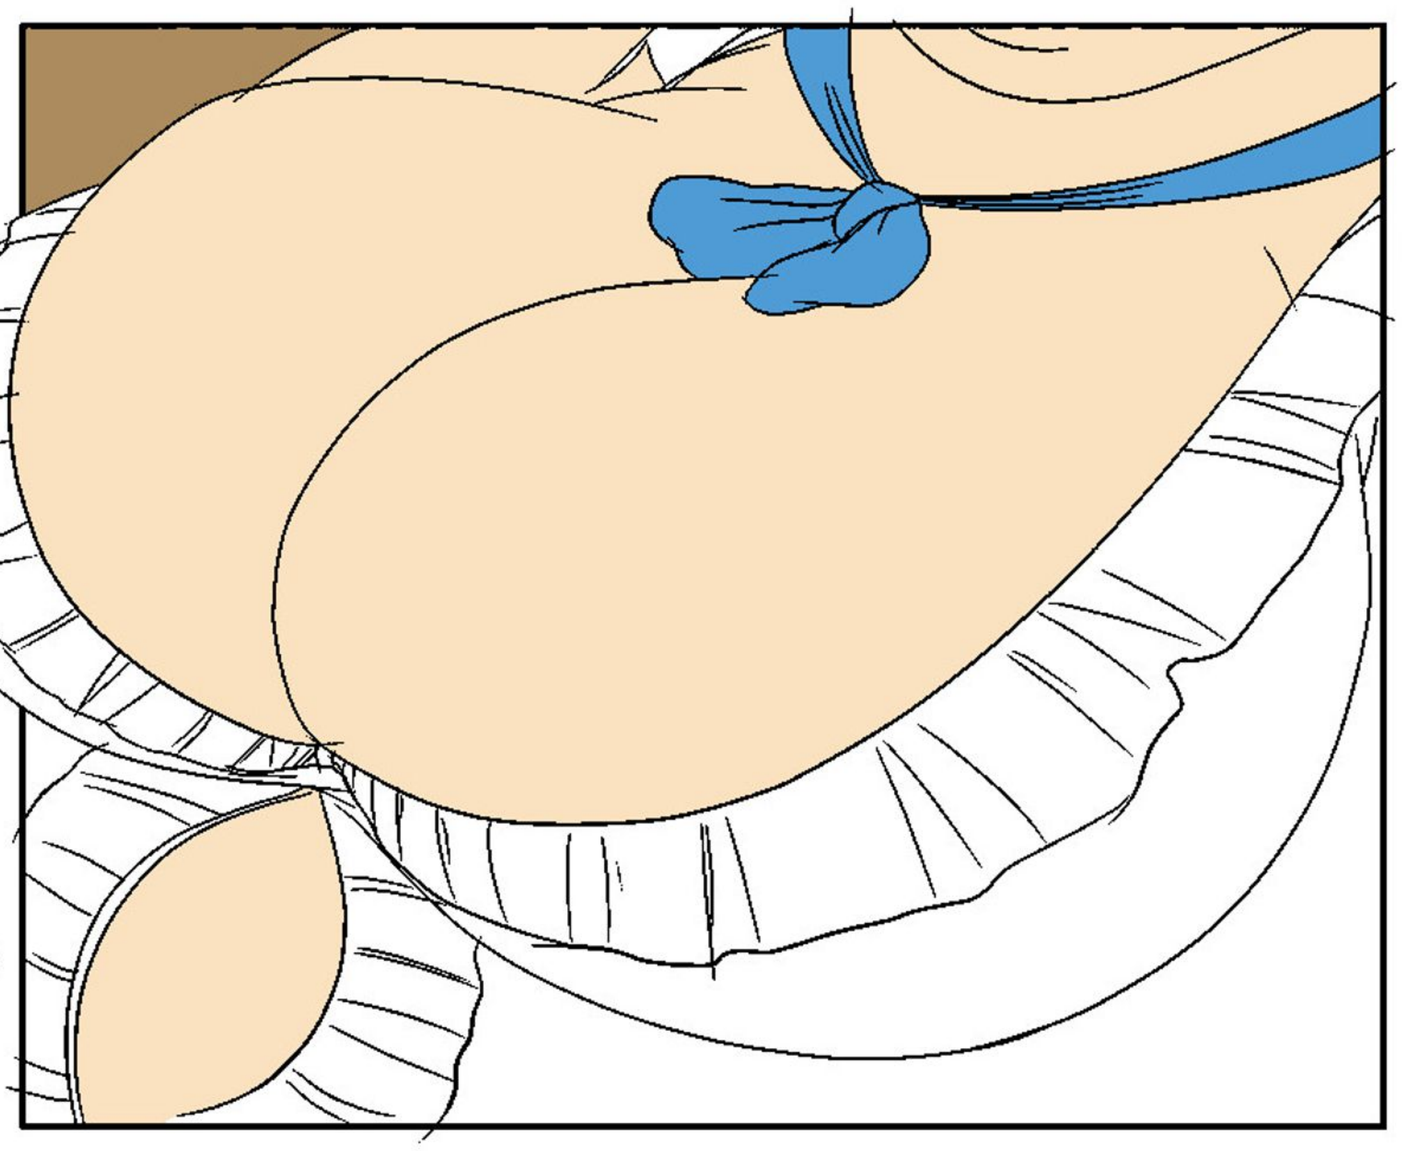
I need more!

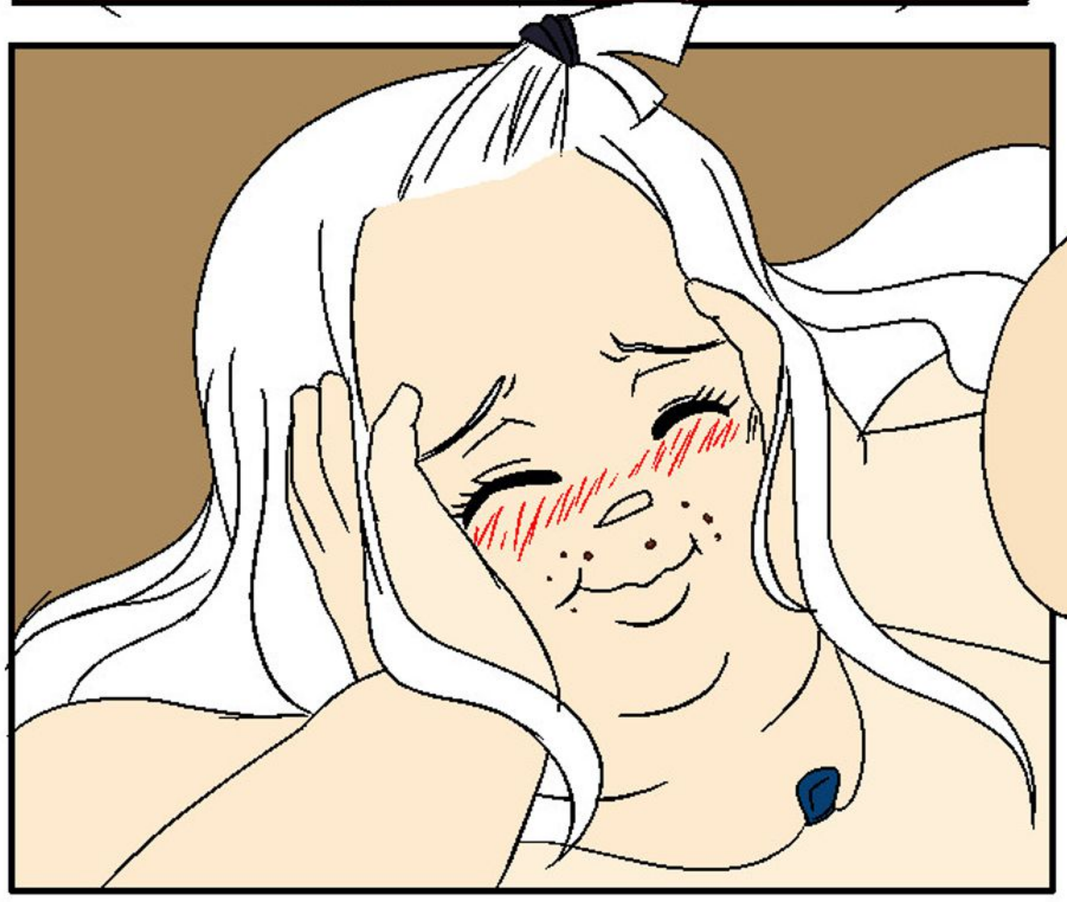
I feel so much softer now, and I can eat all the cake I want with no one judging me.

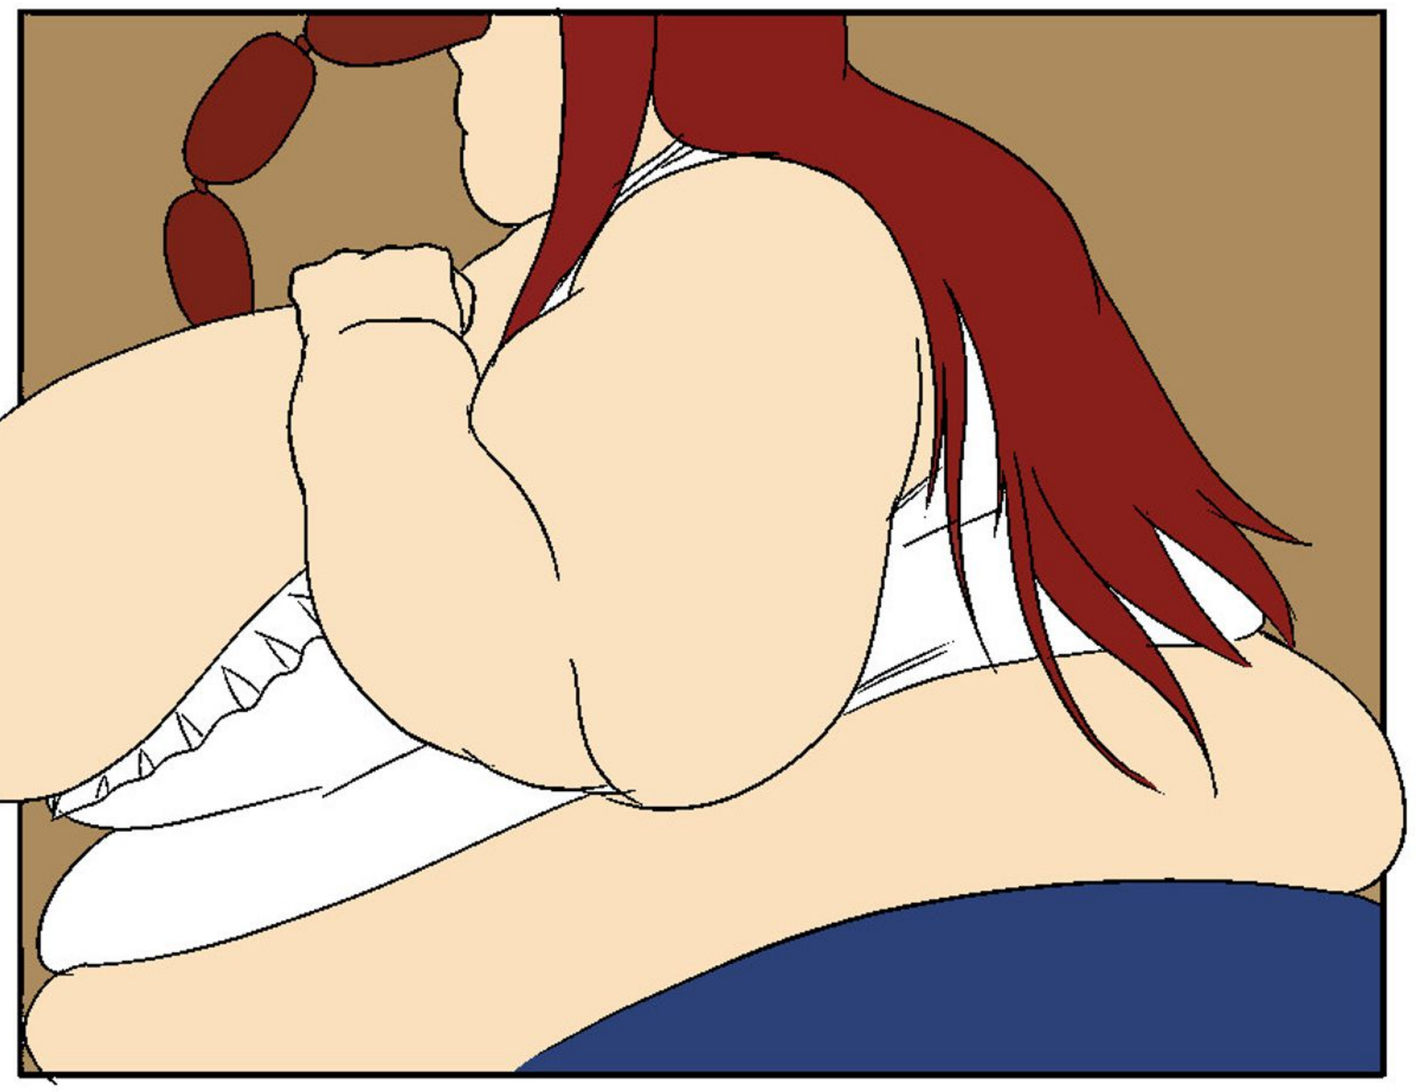
I really don't care about the contest any more!

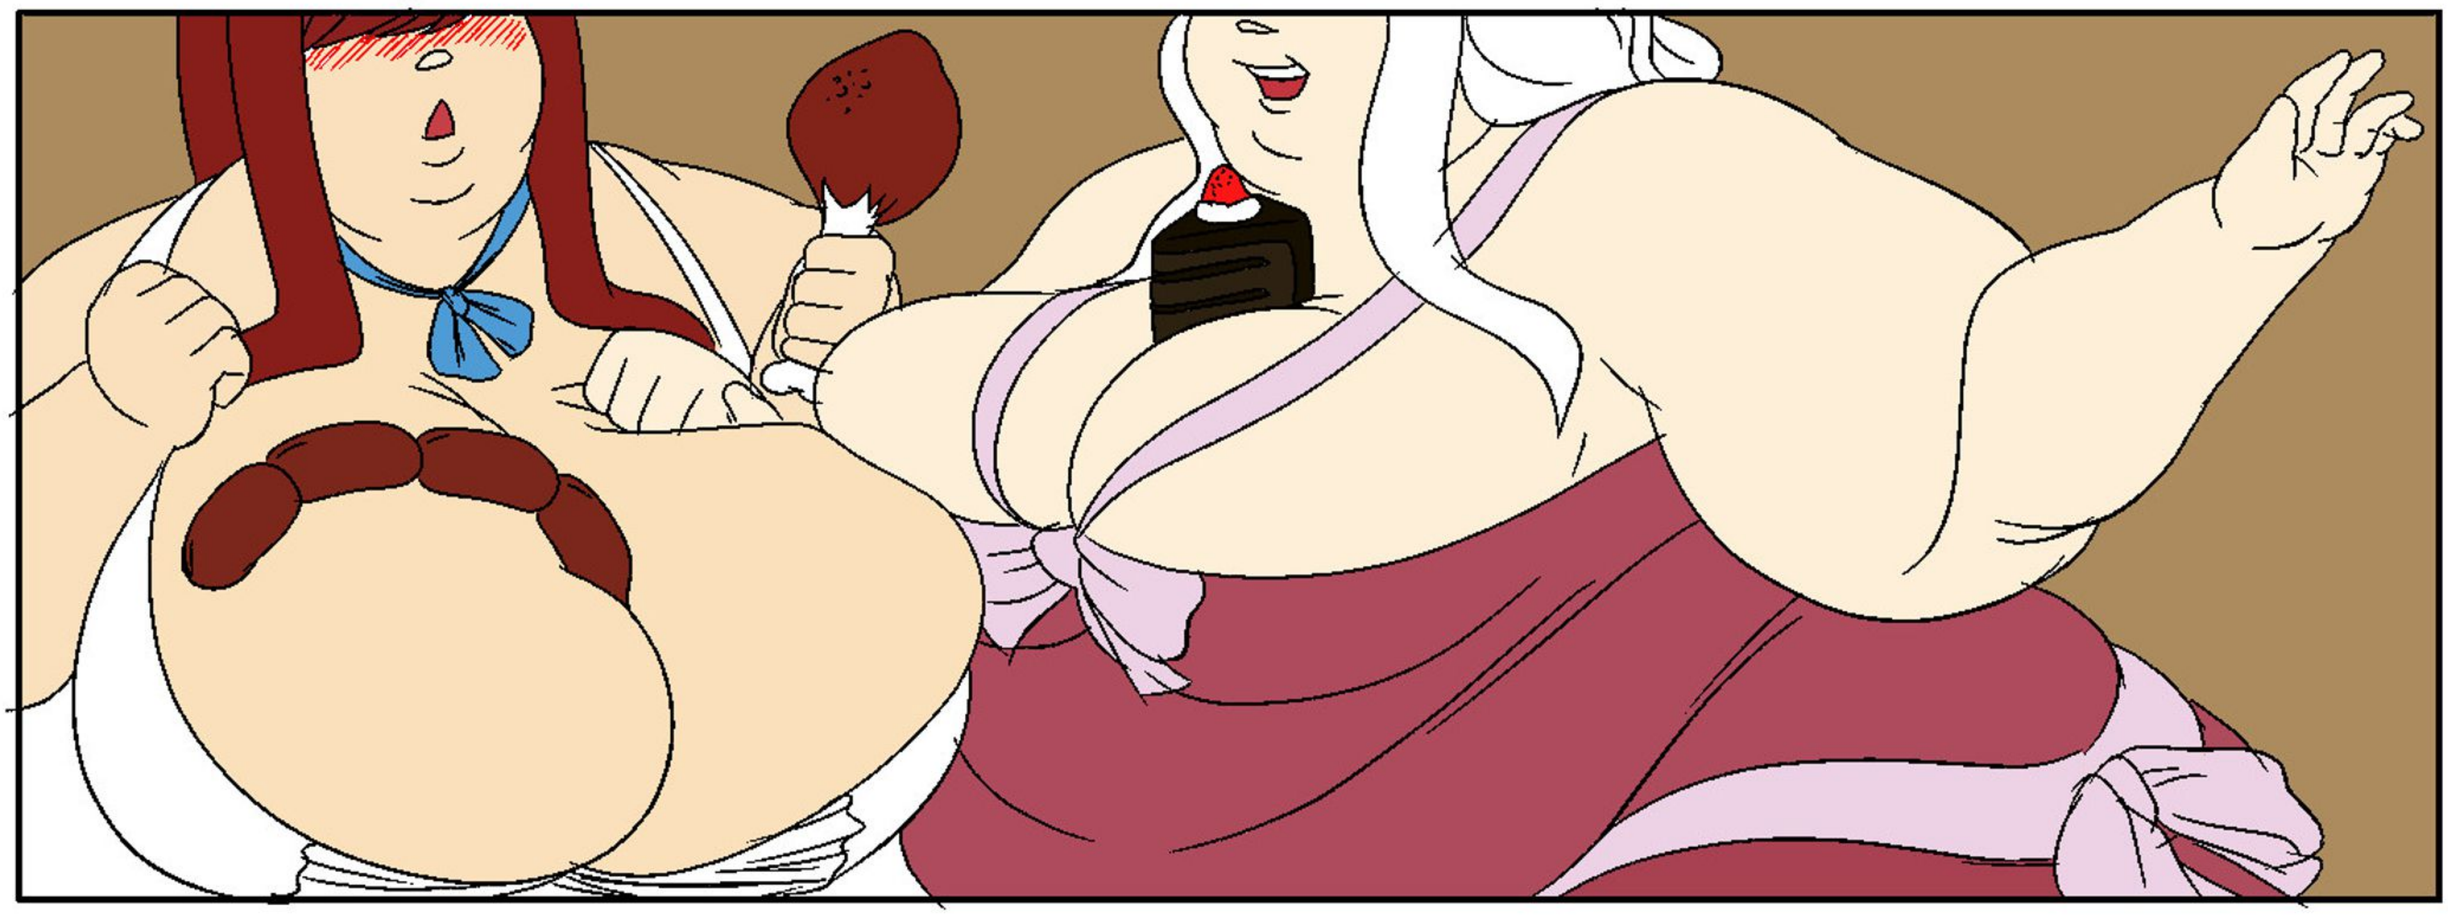
I just want more!

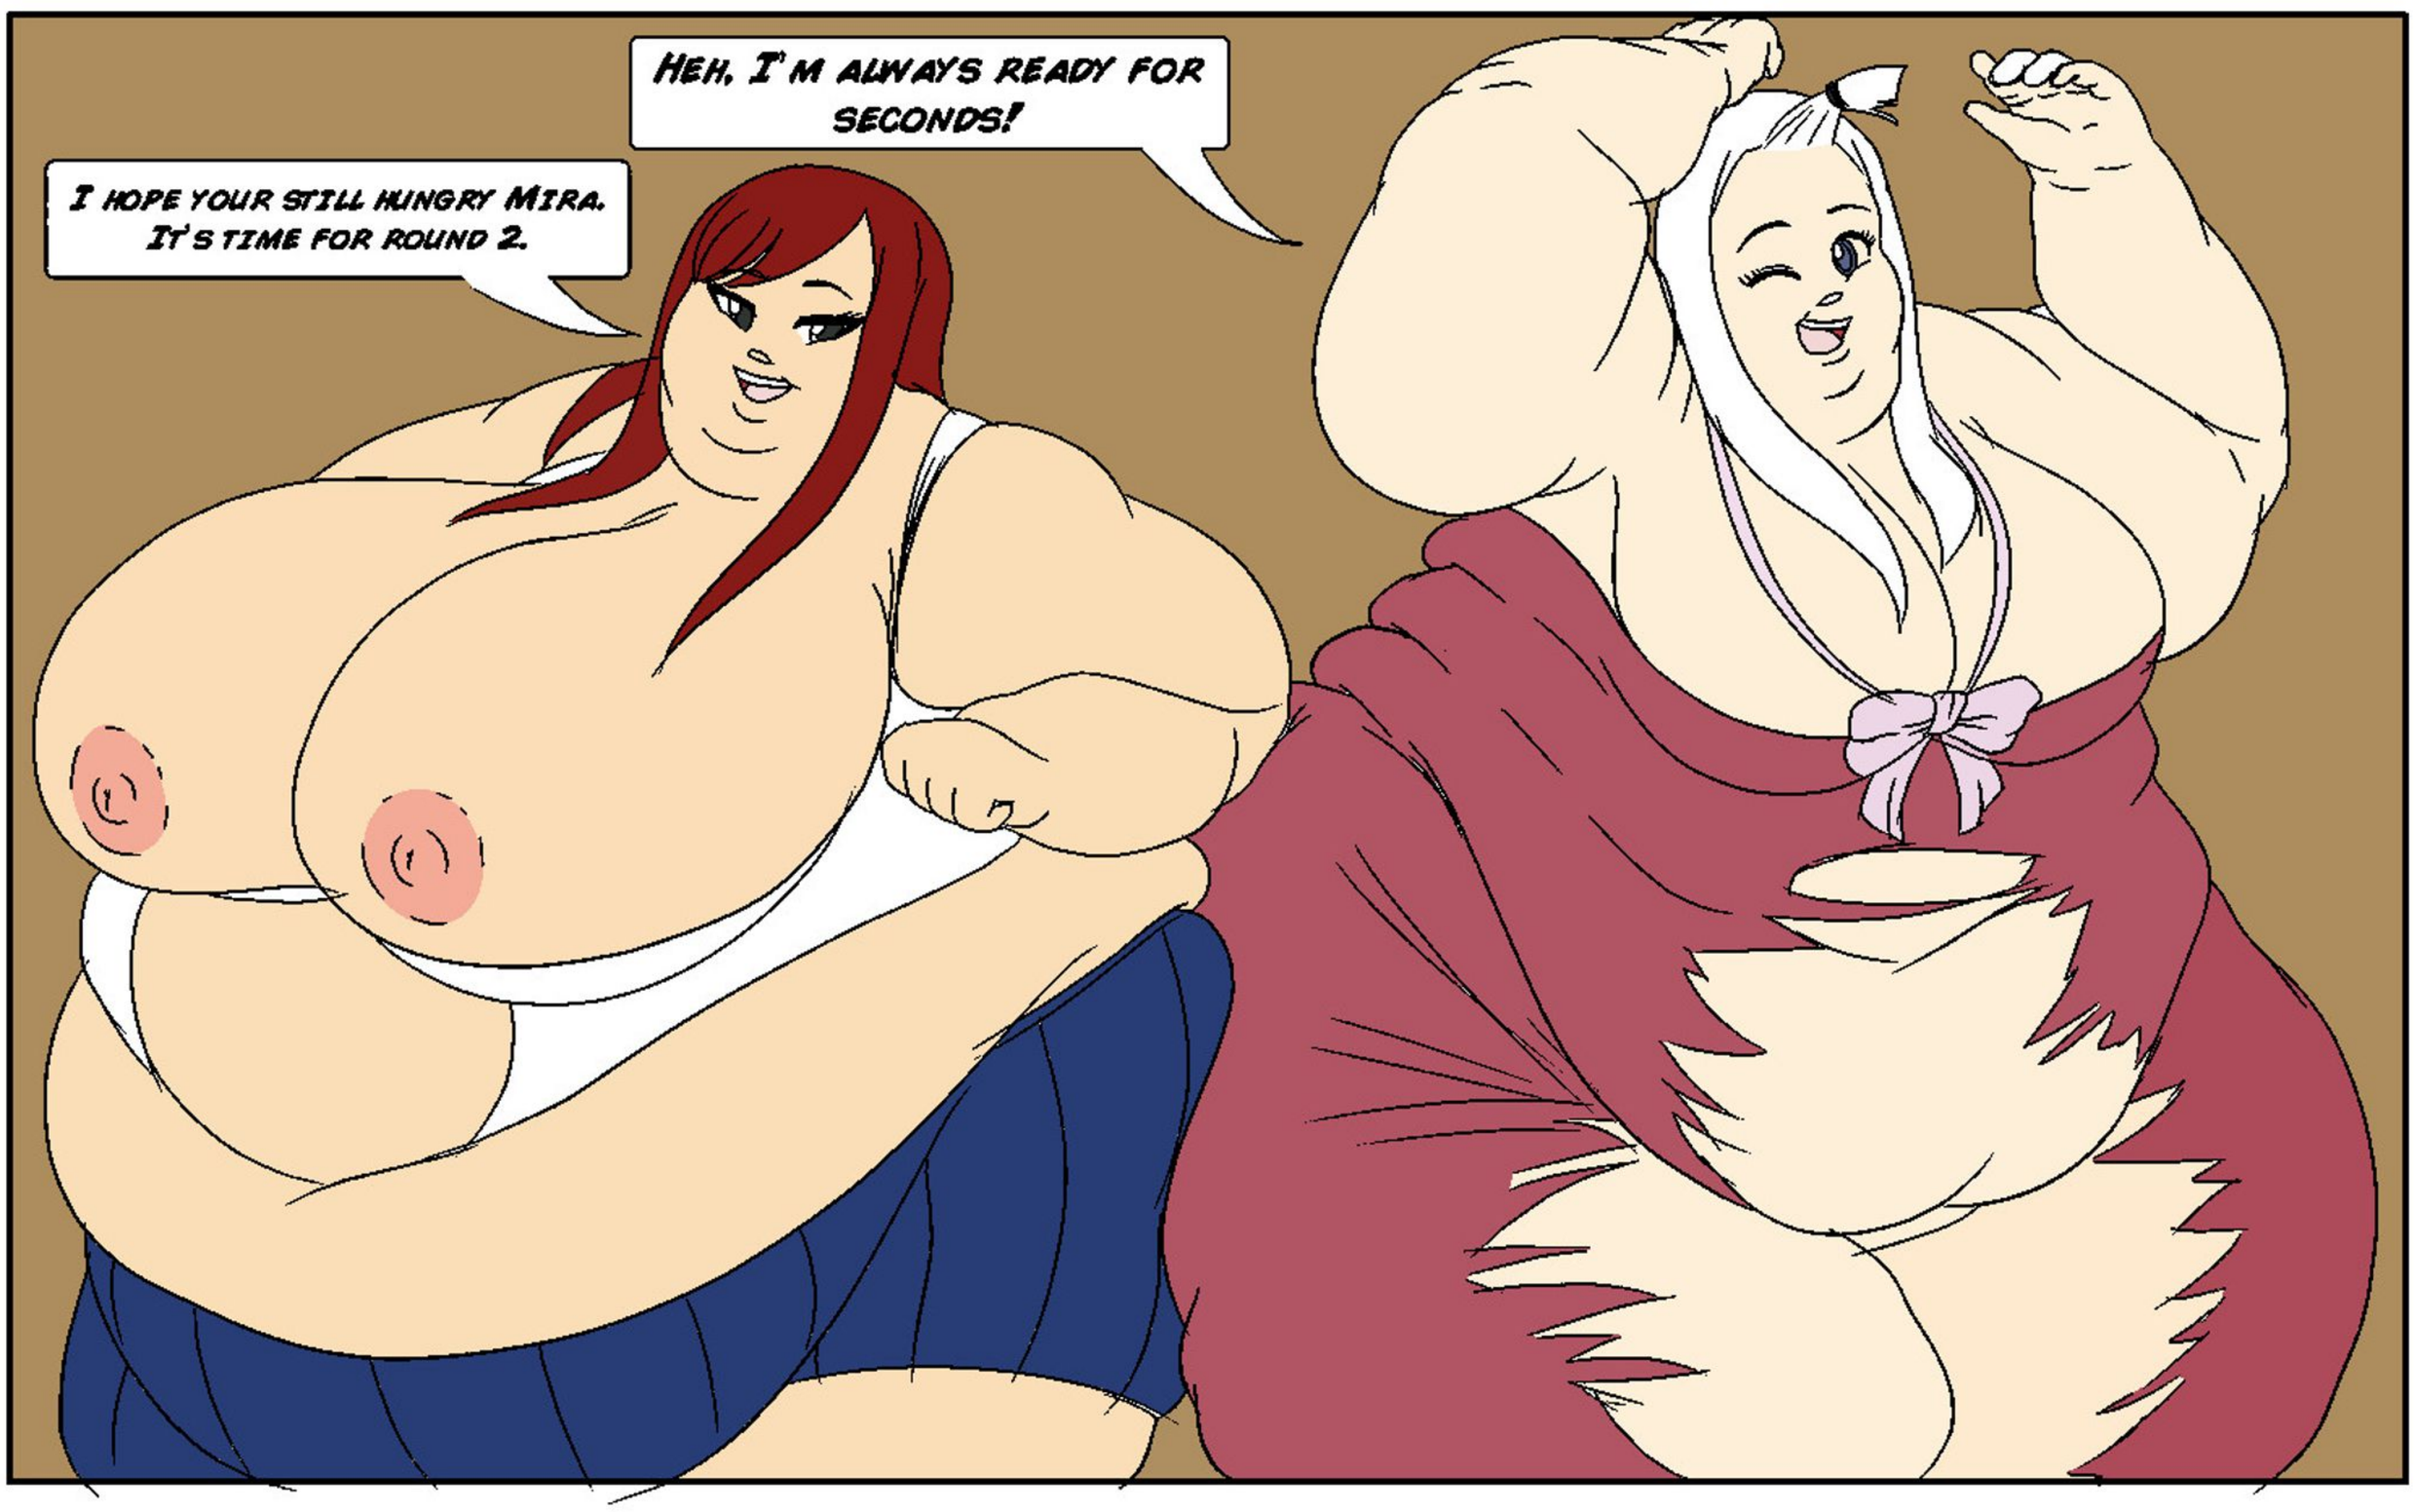












I HOPE YOUR STILL HUNGRY MIRA. IT'S TIME FOR ROUND 2.
HEH, I'M ALWAYS READY FOR SECONDS!
